Part1 1-1

There once was a very wealthy king. People named him the king of 1[ignorance / curiosity]. The king found a road, so he placed a(n) 2[small / huge] stone in the middle of it. Then he hid near the road. A farmer came along the way. When he got near the stone, the farmer tried to move the big stone. He found the work 3[comfortable / difficult]. 4[Hence / However], he thought himself capable of clearing the big stone and finally succeeded. When he was ready to go on his way, the farmer found a(n) 5[familiar / unfamiliar] purse 6[laying / lying] in the road. He opened the purse 7[carefully / carelessly]. The purse was filled with gold coins, the king's 8[remark / reward].

Part1 1-2

A long time ago, there was a boy who needed 9[help / disturb]. He thought of himself as smart, but he often got angry and said 10[hurtful / delightful] things to his friends, John and Ted. 11[Therefore / Although] neither of his friends wanted to, they finally decided to help him. So, they suggested two solutions: "12[both / either] remain calm, or take a nail and drive it into the old fence." Either of their suggestions was 13[intended / pretended] to help the boy 14[damage / manage] his anger. Although the fence was very 15[tough / easy] and the hammer heavy, the boy was so furious that on the very first day, he drove 37 nails. However, day after day, the number of nails 16[gravitationally / gradually] 17[decreased / increased]. After some time, the boy started to understand that holding his temper was 18[easier / harder] than driving nails into the fence. Their 19[suggestions / intentions], like those of a wise mentor, worked well.

Among the Roman soldiers who travelled around Europe conquering land for Emperor Nero in the first century A.D. was a Greek doctor named Dioscorides. No 20[trust / doubt] Dioscorides did his duty in the camp hospitals, tending battlewounded soldiers with the medicines and sharp-toothed saws provided by the military, but his heart wasn't really in it. What he loved most was the days he could 21[imprison / escape] to the hillsides, away from the battle cries, and 22[separate / collect] medicinal plants. He wrote a textbook about his discoveries, titled Materia Medica. and it has been a(n) 23[useful / useless] source of information for botanists, physicians and historians ever since.

A good website needs to be 24[freely / solidly] planned and well written. Research supports that while visuals entertain, 25[most / least] site visitors-regardless of the industry-value the words far more than the graphics. The goal of the technology component of the site is to 26[ensure / insure] that visitors can easily find what they want and 27[wander / navigate] the site 28[instinctively / intuitively]. Properly seen, design and technology 29[secure / serve] to make the words work. That's where the message is.

Part1 1-5

Last week, I went to the playground to play baseball with my friends. On stepping onto the ground, a baseball bat hit me in the face. A classmate 30[decisively / accidentally] let go of the bat while swinging. The 31[impact / compact] messed up my nose. I was 32[breeding / bleeding] so much. It was no use 33[crying / wiping] the blood from my nose. People 34[reached / rushed] over to stop the bleeding. It took a moment for me to 35[realize / resist] how bad things were. I couldn't 36[disturb / help] crying and started searching for my phone to 37[contact / meet] my family.

Part1 1-6

Frankly speaking, the day started a bit 38[regretful / stressful]. After 39[organizing / discarding] my desk, I couldn't find some important papers. Having searched everywhere, I finally found them under a pile of books. Looking at my tidy desk, I felt 40[relieved / released]. The day 41[progressing / processing], I faced 42[beginnings / deadlines], and I worked hard to meet them. In the end, the day turned out 43[better / poorer] than I expected, showing that even when things start off rough, you can turn them around with a bit of effort.

Part1 1-7

44[Realizing / Reflecting] on my recent trip to Bali, I realize that 45[inappropriate / insufficient] planning was my mistake. If I had planned carefully beforehand, I wouldn't be sad and 46[regretful / thankful] now. Looking back, I can see the problems that 47[arose / rose] from my 48[lack / excess] of preparation. If I had taken the time to plan, it might have spared me from 49[missing / picking] out on 50[enlightening / fascinating] places. It's like a story where you wish you could 51[charge / change] certain things. To focus on the 52[positive / possible], I can learn from this experience. If I were to visit Bali again, I would 53[gather / divide] a lot of information before my trip.

Part1 1-8

Tommy was always 54[full / fill] of curiosity. One day at school, he asked the teacher, "Why does the sky look blue?" It seemed like such a(n) 55[logical / foolish] question that everyone laughed at him. Tommy tried to ask why everyone laughed, but he couldn't because his heart was 56[improve / hurt]. Since that day, Tommy has 57[shown / hidden] his curiosity and lived quietly, always keeping to himself. However, he studied 58[easier / harder] so that he could better understand the sky's mysteries. Years later, he became a scientist and wrote a paper explaining the color of the sky. Now, he has 59[assigned / achieved] his dream and is 60[resented / respected] by all.

Part1 1-9

Jasmine is a type of 61[plant / preach] known for its fragrant flowers. It grows best in 62[cool / warm] climates. The plant is often found in tropical 63[regions / recoveries]. It requires plenty of sunlight and well-drained soil to 64[thrive / decline]. Its flowers are used in perfumes, teas, and as 65[vibrations / decorations] due to their 66[unpleasant / pleasant] scent. Jasmine is a popular choice for gardens and landscaping in areas with 67[rapid / mild] winters, where it can grow and bloom all year round.

Part1 Review Test1 1

Young as she is, Ella Pangilinan has already 1[embraced / refused] the life of an athlete. "Being an athlete encouraged me to learn how to discipline myself as well as create a balance between my 2[priorities / qualities] and those activities that should follow after." Learning the importance of putting the team first has taught her the responsibility of 3[commitment / commission] and perseverance to excel not just during practice, but also during official games. Having played as the Brent Varsity Girls Team Striker, Ella believes that "if you have the heart, nothing else should stop you from pursuing what you're 4[dispassionate / passionate] about." Simply put, she says, "No heart, no 5[chance / change]."

Part1 Review Test1 2-3

Polite dining at the table, whether the meal is formal or informal, has 6[developed / described] as one of the behaviors that set human beings apart from other animals. Nowhere else is a person's difference from beasts 7[less / more] evident than in eating manners and social behavior. Dining etiquette is important because it enables you to enjoy the finer things in life-good company, good food, and good 8[conversation / conservation]. Knowing about these refinements not only makes dining more enjoyable but also can give you a(n) 9[competitive / comprehensive] edge in business. When you're confident of your manners, you're a more relaxed and polished 10[candidate / representative] of your company.

Part1 Review Test1 4

Superman (1938), the comic book, is a direct 11[result / cause] of writer and co-creator Jerry Siegel's inability to get girls when he was a young man. "As a high school student, he once explained, "I liked several attractive girls who either didn't know I existed or didn't care I 12[ceased / existed]. It 13[occurred / caused] to me: What if I was really 14[amazing / irreparable]? What if I had something 15[special / routine] going for me, like jumping over buildings or throwing cars around? Then maybe they would 16[disregard / notice] me." Siegel and Joe Shuster, the other creator, named their 17[characteristic / character] after movie actors Clark Gable and Kent Taylor. Lois Lane was 18[inspired / respired] by a woman named Lois Amster,
