Dear Mr. Smith,

(A) Last October 1, I bought a sofa from your website. I paid $650 on my credit card, and it was delivered on October 10. Unfortunately, your product has not performed well. One of the legs broke off on October 30.

(B) I have enclosed copies of my records, including my receipt, delivery invoice, and photos of the broken sofa. I look forward to your reply and a resolution to my problem. I will wait until December 12 before I contact the Consumer Protection Office to get help. Sincerely, Emily Johnson

(C) The sofa is unsteady and rocks while I sit on it, so it is not comfortable or relaxing. I have not used this sofa in a way that would cause any damage. I filed a report about this problem on the Customer Service page of your website on November 5 and 7, but no one has written back. To resolve the problem, I would like your company to pick up this sofa with no charge and refund the $650 I paid.
