In a broad sense, digital art refers to any type of art that is created and displayed with the aid of digital devices. This artistic format emerged with the evolutionary progress in digital media and computers a few decades ago. In many ways, artworks created with digital technology sharply contrast with those made entirely with conventional methods. However, they are similar in that digital art also evokes emotional reactions in viewers. From this perspective, it can be said that digital art has expanded the territory of art. There are many types of art that use digital technology. For instance, music can be recorded and then changed with the aid of digital devices, or music can be made only with computer software. Some movies are both created and edited digitally. Additionally, art museums offer exhibitions displaying famous paintings of the world on big digital screens. These examples all incorporate digital technology into the creation and display of the work.

함축의미

Many of Rockwell's works about everyday life are quite tender. An example is Doctor and the Doll, produced in 1929. The little girl, who seems to be about four or five years old, is facing the old man while holding up a doll. The man is wearing a black suit, and there is a doctor's bag under the chair. The girl has already put the doll's dress under her arm because she wants to get her doll examined by the doctor. The doctor is going along with her wish and is pretending to listen to the doll's heart. He is treating her and her doll carefully. Doesn't the look on her face look like a worried mother at the hospital? Do you think the girl really thinks the doll is sick or she is just playing hospital with the doctor? This work helps us appreciate the innocence of children. The girl's cuteness and the doctor's kindness evoke a feeling of warmth, bringing tender smiles to viewers' faces.

101) 정답: ④ identical → various

해설: 본문에서 예술을 감상할 때 작가의 의도를 파악하는 것뿐만 아니라 자신만의 방식으로 예술을 감상하는 것도 중요하다고 언급하고 있다. 이는 '다양한(various)' 각도에서 예술을 바라보는 것을 의미하며, 'identical(동일한)'은 반대 의미로 문맥상 부적절하다.

102) 정답: ③ different → similar

해설: 본문에서 디지털 기술로 만든 작품이 전통적 방법으로 만든 작품과 여러 면에서 대조를 이루지만, 디지털 아트도 관람객들에게 감정적 반응을 불러일으킨다는 점에서는 '유사하다(similar)'고 설명하고 있다. 'different(다른)'은 문맥상 부적절하다.
